PROGRAM GUIDE & ORDERING INFO FOR 2024/5784

SHARING LIGHT FOR REMEMBRANCE

ANTI-SEMITISM IS PERVASIVE

“Anti-Semitism is like a virus; it doesn’t go away. You must figure out how to vaccinate against it.

Once a year we pause and realize that the Holocaust must not be forgotten. The next generation will not likely have the same experience. There is a danger of simply forgetting the reality which is and was the Holocaust. They may think it couldn’t have been that bad, and human beings wouldn’t do that.

The Shoah Yellow Candle is an opportunity to open the conversation, which parents have trouble doing. Yet, there is evil, and the next generation has seen it. When it happens, we need to draw attention to it. Candles are powerful symbols, yet symbols are not obvious. You must explain it.

Why Share the Yellow Candles? You may make a difference.

Sharing Light for Remembrance. The tragedy of the Holocaust is not forgotten to help prevent similar heinous crimes or repeat offenses. Sharing light through remembrance using the Yellow Candle, is just a moment in time, but a timeless moment that may never be forgotten. The tool of light – through candle sharing – will shine truth on everyone it comes across.

Today, organizations worldwide sponsor this international program. Shoah Yellow Candles™ are distributed to people from all streams of Judaism to institutions such as synagogues, schools, Holocaust Museums, military bases, churches, Hillel campus chapters, Jewish Federations, and government offices.

Your organization may run a successful Shoah Yellow Candle program. Success means educating and distributing as many Candles as possible to your community. No human being who wishes to memorialize a victim should be left out.

Why Shoah Yellow Candles? Never Again. Remember the Holocaust.

The Shoah Yellow Candle™ was created in 1981 by FJMC clubs in Canada, New England, and elsewhere to keep alive the memory of the Six Million who perished in the Shoah. The Candle is modeled after a traditional Jewish memorial Yahrzeit candle that burns for 24 hours during periods of mourning and on the Yahrzeit anniversary of a family member.

Survivors asked, how could Yahrzeits be observed for those victims whose entire families had been wiped out? When you light a Yellow Candle for one victim of the Shoah, you recognize all the victims of the Shoah. On this basis, the Yellow Candle™ program exists, as a unique Holocaust remembrance observance.

The candle's yellow wax serves to remind us of the yellow arm band which Jews were forced to wear during the Nazi regime. In addition, the program logo is a yellow Magen David (Star of David) outlined with barbed wire, with the word "Jude" in the middle. These symbols preserve the memory of the armband or cloth patch that Jews were forced to wear in the ghettos of Eastern Europe.

Please share Yellow Candle™ remembrance, photos, etc.

Because Holocaust denial is a common facet of certain racist propaganda, it is considered a serious societal problem in many places where it occurs.

Evil is like a virus. We need the vaccination. The FJMC leadership understands many organizations, large or small can, rightfully, be apprehensive at undertaking a ShYellow Candle program in their organization because of the costs involved, including the cost of candles, envelopes, or plastic bags. But we have several ideas that other clubs or organizations, like yourself, have implemented to overcome this "seeming impediment."

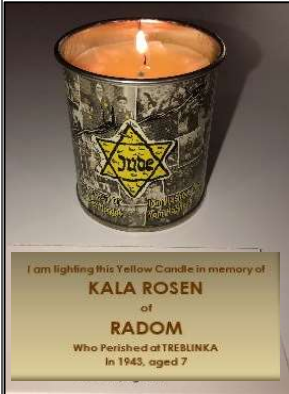

- There are likely several people within your organization who were directly, or within one or two generations, affected by the Holocaust, family members who perished, or family members who survived. Ask them to sponsor and donate a case (or more than one) of candles in honor or memory of that person or family and highlight such fact of dedication/sponsoring in your publicity. The FJMC can provide a sample letter to ask them for such.
- Although members of your organization may not have first-hand experience or connection with the Holocaust, they may be passionate about ensuring that the Jewish community does not forget such an experience. They may be willing to sponsor or dedicate a case (or more than one) of candles. You can ask the leaders or Rabbi who those people are. The FJMC can provide a sample letter to ask them.
- You might ask your leaders, Rabbi or Cantor, or members of the congregation's Executive Committee, to sponsor a case (or more than one) of such candles. And your publicity would so indicate. When other members see the sponsorship, you'll be surprised how many of those who 'stepped up' are thanked for their efforts.
- You can ask a local business, whether it is connected to one of the organization's members, to sponsor the campaign for a year. Assuming your organization has less than 200 families, four (4) cases of candles & envelopes or bags would cost approximately $400. Such is a small amount for any business to spend on direct marketing.
 - A group in the Seaboard Region reached out to a car dealership not owned by a Jewish owner or a member of the congregation to sponsor the program. Each of the candles distributed had the dealership's logo and the appreciation of the club for the dealership sponsoring the campaign. For what, in the budget of the car dealership, was a small amount of money, it reached hundreds of potential customers who would likely remember such action much more than the print ad buried in a local paper. The dealership would have to get one (1) additional car sale and the sponsorship would have paid for itself.
 - There are likely many businesses and professionals who, if the sponsoring of the program resulted in one or two new customers, it would pay for itself.
 - Your Rabbi (or leaders/Executive Director) can likely guide you on who such businesses or professionals are.
 - The FJMC can provide sample letters to help you ask for such sponsorship.

A reality of life is that if you don't ask, you will not receive. All too frequently, our fear of rejection stops us from even trying. If you realize that you are asking people who have a connection to the subject matter and understand the importance of the program, or in the case of a business, might be able to present their company or product in a very different and more effective light, the worst that happens is that they say no. Your club is in no different position than if you would never have asked. Get a yes, then continue asking someone else. The Yellow Candle program depends on your support.

Best Practices to Build a Yellow Candle Program

Best Practice #1:

The FJMC Yellow Candle website link, <https://www.fjmc.org/content/new-marketing-synagogue-mens-club-letter> has lists of NAMES OF CHILDREN who were murdered during the Holocaust. Include their names as part of your Yellow Candle remembrance program.

During the Holocaust, the Nazis and their collaborators murdered over 1.5 million Jewish children under the age of 16. Personalize each family’s observance of Yom HaShoah by providing every family with the name and homeland of a young victim who may have no surviving relatives to light a candle in his or her memory.

Another way to include children’s names is to mail merge them into the Yellow Candle Meditation letter. Numerous Yellow Candle Committees – who have used the Holocaust children merged meditation – have experienced an increase in donations from the organization’s families with children.

The FJMC website has templates for Avery Labels, mail merged lists, and sample meditation prayers ready to use.

“The candles are an education tool. It is how we pass the memory and the importance of the memory from generation to generation. My children helped me deliver the candles each year. It was a family project. Now my grandchildren will accompany their parents in this annual mitzvah. On the evening of Yom HaShoah families come together, light the candle, and spend a moment in reflection.

This year, based on recent history, we needed to do more. We need to bring candles to our neighbors and friends - Jewish and Non-Jewish to remind them of the greatest lesson - the Holocaust happened when good people did nothing. Lives were saved when good people became heroic. That flickering wick reminds the world they can make a difference.”

Tom Sudow
Past FJMC President
Member of Park Synagogue Cleveland, Ohio

Best Practices to Build a Yellow Candle Program

Best Practice #2:

A Yellow Candle committee completely redid distribution through a HAND DELIVERY program which can be easily adapted to your organization. Covid-19 Rules Providing.

1. The congregation's religious school represents 14% of total families. The yellow candle committee worked with the school director to create family name labels by grade. On candle packing day, they used magic markers to boldly mark the bags to get to the correct grades and then delivered them to the school office.

2. The congregation's Chai Society (over 55 years old) programs average over 100 attendees. The committee attends one or two of their programs to distribute candles and delete those names from the home delivery list. Look for other large groups that meet at the synagogue to hand-deliver the candles too.

3. Home delivery program. Using an Excel spreadsheet, the committee gets the synagogue list by full name with title, family salutation, street, city, state, and zip. Suggestion: have zip as a separate cell. After deleting school families, Chai member families and candles are picked up at the synagogue, and the club prepares the home delivery list.

4. On the Excel spreadsheet, sort by town, or zip+4, or by easily concentrated communities. You can find a master delivery spreadsheet on the FJMC website.

a. To determine the number of delivery volunteers needed, divide the master list by 25. Recruit volunteers from Men's Club, USY, religious school parents and children, and others in the synagogue.

b. Map your delivery routes by using software like <https://www.drivingrouteplanner.com> or <https://www.myrouteonline.com>.

A volunteer can deliver 25-30 candles in two hours with this method, preferably with a helper. The distribution list is sent to the volunteers to help them organize. Envelopes or plastic bags, clearly labeled with each volunteer's name, are preloaded with the correct number of candles, Yellow Candle door bags, and the master delivery list.

FYI: Some candles cannot be delivered because of gated communities and security buildings. Ask your volunteers to bring those back. In turn, mail those Yellow Candles that could not be hand-delivered or make other arrangements with the recipient.

Best Practices to Build a Yellow Candle Program

1. Have your Rabbi prepare a letter encouraging congregants to light the yellow candle in observance of Yom HaShoah and encourage donations of any amount. The letter should be sent six weeks before the distribution of your candles.

The letter will be more effective if you include the charity selected by your congregation or club's donation. Sample Rabbi letters are found at www.yellowcandles.org.

2. With each candle distributed, include a meditation prayer with the synagogue's and Men's Club president's letter. Sample letters and meditation prayers are at www.yellowcandles.org.

- a. Personalize the meditation page with the names of children that perished in the Holocaust. Children's names, birthplaces, ages, and places when murdered are available at www.yellowcandles.org.
- b. The President's letter, inserted with the candles, includes a form for donations equal to the Rabbi's letter. Sample letters and meditations are at www.yellowcandles.org.
- c. Ask all participants to post a picture of their candle lighting to social media. #yellowcandle on Twitter, post on your own Facebook page and share on <https://www.facebook.com/YellowCandles/>, etc.

3. Two weeks after the lighting of the candle, send a reminder letter requesting that congregants who have not yet donated, do so.

While you would hope that all the people receiving candles will remember to light them on Yom HaShoah – Sunday, May 5, 2024, There are other days (this list is far from complete) that would be appropriate for lighting them.

- September 29-30. Babi Yar Massacre of 33,000 Jews
 - November 9 – Kristallnacht
 - November 15 – Warsaw Ghetto Sealed
 - January 27 – International Holocaust and Remembrance Day
- Any day when your congregant has a personal yahrzeit. There were tens of thousands of Jews who had no one to light a candle on their behalf. By the congregant lighting a candle and saying a prayer, those victims have not been forgotten.

In addition, you want your members to light the candle so that when you distribute the candles again next year, they do not have multiple candles and become less likely to send a contribution.

Those who forget history, are doomed to repeat it.

You can make a difference. This new Yellow Candle guide makes it simple.

1 Single Candle $10 Donation	For a simple, meaningful observance, please order one Shoah Yellow Candle™, including the names of an innocent child who was murdered in the Holocaust, and a customized meditation to read when you light the candle. Meditations

Please light the Shoah Yellow Candle™ on erev Yom HaShoah, the evening of Sunday, May 5, 2024.

Recite one of the following meditations as you light it:

I am lighting this Yellow Candle in memory of (Name) of (City of Birth) who perished at (Location of Death) in (Year of Death) aged (Age)

Rabbi Jules Harlow

As I light this Yellow Candle, I vow never to forget the lives of the Jewish men, women, and children who were martyred and are symbolized by this flame. They were tortured and brutalized by human beings who acted like beasts; their lives were taken in cruelty.

May we be inspired to learn more about our six million brothers and sisters as individuals and as communities, to recall their memory throughout the year, so that they will not suffer a double death.

May we recall not only the terror of their deaths but also the splendor of their lives. May the memory of their lives inspire us to hallow our own lives and to live meaningful Jewish lives so that we may help to ensure that part of who they were shall endure always.

Ron Adler

We light this yellow candle to rekindle God's flame,
To shine His light upon the world once again,
To sanctify the memories of millions of souls,
To honor their prayers and all their lost goals.
We bless their existence by being alive
To light this yellow candle as proof we survived.
